Here at the Oasis

Environment day on Saturday the 17th of May at 10am to 3pm.

There will be lots to do and to learn for the whole family.

The day will include a variety of different stands and activities including a climbing wall, reptiles, insects, watercolours and even card making to name just a few!

The theme of the day will encompass learning about our environment, the effect we are having and how to reduce the damage we are making. There will also be advice about recycling and saving energy. It is a chance to find out information to save yourself money and help the planet at the same time.

Environment Fun Day May 17th

There is also an Archeologist on hand to give information about any finds you may have dug up in your back gardens. So if you have found a coin or a pot you maybe sitting on a Roman villa!
